ISC Consulting Group Wins 2010 Success Award

Sierra Vista, AZ – March 30, 2010 – ISC Consulting Group named 2010 Success Award recipient by the Arizona Small Business Development Center Network.

ISC Consulting Group has been named as a 2010 Success Award winner by the Arizona Small Business Development Center Network. This award honors not only the success of the ISC Consulting Group, but also the positive impact that the company has had on the community and the Arizona economy.

ISC Consulting Group is dedicated to the fundamental values of Integrity, Service, and Commitment. Owners Clint Imholte and Steve Dufour started their business in 2007, supporting the intelligence field for the military at Fort Huachuca. ISC now provides a multitude of specialized consulting services to government clients that make a measurable difference in the efficiency and effectiveness of their customer's mission and critical business processes. ISC's largest client is the United States Army Intelligence Center of Excellence and Fort Huachuca. ISC proudly serves Ft. Huachuca and the surrounding community providing intelligence support services for our nation's efforts in Iraq and Afghanistan. ISC enthusiastically supports the Boys and Girls Club of Sierra Vista, the Firefighters Toy Drive, and the deployed troops overseas. "Our clients understand that ISC always places the mission first, and our business exists to serve our clients, our employees, and our community", Imholte stated.

ISC provides a multitude of specialized consulting services in the areas of Aviation Safety Management Systems, Center for Leadership Excellence, Geospatial Intelligence, Information Technology Management, Intelligence Management & Operations, Strategic Learning Technologies, and Test & Evaluation Solutions.

Imholte and Dufour acknowledge that the success of their company is augmented by the support they receive from their partners, such as the Small Business Development Center (SBDC). Dufour added, "The SBDC at Cochise College provided timely, relevant feedback and guidance on the many essentials of running a business, such as taxes, loan information, and accounting practices, and Mignon Holis, SBDC Director, was cordial, competent, and had a wealth of information".

ISC Consulting Group is a Service Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) and is HubZone certified. They are headquartered in Sierra Vista, Arizona, with offices at Ft. Huachuca, AZ, Creech Air Force Base, NV, Nellis Air Force Base, NV, and Ft. Hood, TX.
